MOB BEATS NEGRO.

Because, it is alleged, John Fisher, colored, attempted to carve his wife, Hattie Fisher, he narrowly escaped a lynching at hands of an angry mob late Tuesday night, in Baltimore.

Fisher and his wife had been living in Crisfield, Md., but several days ago the woman went to Baltimore to escape Fisher's brutalities, she says. Fisher followed her, and immediately upon his arrival there he instituted a vigorous search for his missing wife. About midnight, on Tuesday, he learned that she was living in Wiesenfield's Court, and he went there at once. Upon arriving there he saw Hattie sitting on the steps of a house and at once he attacted her. As soon as she was attacked, the woman began to scream and ran through the house into Aliceanna street. Fisher was following her and when she reached the street she had been cut in several places.

The screams of the woman attracted the attention of a number of men and boys, who captured Fisher and were in the act of besting him unmercifully when Sergeant Carey and Patrolman Miller, of the Eastern district, arrived. The police fought their way through the crowd and with their sticks rescued Fisher. He was taken to the Eastern Police Station, where a charge of assaulting and cutting Hattie Fisher with a knife was placed against him. Yesterday morning when Fisher was arraigned for trial before Justice Garland, he prayed for a jury trial and was committed to jail in default of $500 bail.

BEAR FELL FROM A TREE.

Falling out of a huge fir tree from a height of 50 feet near Berlin, Linn county, Wash., when shot by hunters yesterday, a black bear, weighing 400 pounds, struck squarely on a hound, valued at $500, killing the animal instantly. The incident was the result of an hour's chase, in which several farmers, bent on avenging the slaughter of their herds by bears, took part.

Warned by the baying hounds that he was in danger, bruin took refuge in the fir tree. A few minutes later, a party of six hunters emptied their rifles into the treetop. Pierced by several bullets, the animal released its hold and crashed through the branches to the ground. One of the hounds, eager to seize the bear, rushed in, but misjudged the instance and received the full impact of the animal's weight.

Kodol will, without doubt, make your stomach strong and will almost instantly relieve you of all the symptoms of indigestion. Get a bottle of it today. It is sold here by W. F. Creighton & Co.

FIND COW IN A MINE.

The bellowing of a cow, as they walked along the gangway of the Delaware, and Hudson early yesterday morning, badly frightened Joseph Wolfe and Frank Krause, miners, of Wilkesbarre, Pa., who were on their way to their chamber. The gangway is seventy feet below the surface, and in such a place the noise was startling. Upon investigation the men discovered that a cow, owned by Reuben Lord, of Plymouth, had been in a field, and during the night a cave-in occurred over old workings of the mine. The sinking earth carried the cow down with it, and sliding at an angle of 45 degrees deposited the cow, strangely enough, in the working chamber of Krause and Wolfe. It was unhurt except for a few scratches, and was led to the bottom of the shaft two miles away, and hoisted to the surface.

Best Treatment for a Burn.

If for no other reason, Chamberlain's Salve should be kept in every household on account of its great value in the treatment of burns. It allays the pain almost instantly, and unless the injury is a severe one, heals the parts without leaving a scar. This salve is also unequaled for chapped hands, sore nipples and diseases of the skin. Price, 25 cents. For sale by W. F. Creighton & Co. and Richard Gibson.

VICIOUS BULL GORES MAN.

Fred F. Walker, a farmer near Hyndman, Md., was probably fatally injured by a vicious bull. His mangled form was found Tuesday night in the field with the bull standing guard. His wife had become alarmed at his absence and search was made.

Walker's shoulder is broken and several ribs are fractured. He sustained several internal injuries. He was unconscious nearly 24 hours, and the doctor holds out little hope for his recovery.

The bull was known to be vicious toward strangers, but had never attacked members of the family. A large force of neighbors drove the animal away from Walker with pitchforks

Good for Biliousness.

"I took two of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tables last night, and I felt fifty per cent. better than I have for weeks, says J. J. Firestone of Allegan, Mich. "They are certainly a fine article for biliousness." For sale by W. F. Creighton and Richard Gibson. Samples free.

AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

THURSDAY EVENING, SEPT. 17, 1908.

A FIGHTING chance is all that Attorney General Charles J. Bonaparte, of Mr. Roosevelt's cabinet, is willing to confess as the probable outcome of Judge Taft's race for the presidency. Why, this is rank treason, and would be discredited as a lie made out of the whole cloth if first published in a democratic paper. Mr. Bonaparte has just returned from a long summer vacation, and for years he has been the accredited trust buster of the Roosevelt regime, without the glory of having "busted" a single trust. He has, however, been interviewed on several matters, and The Sun, one of the many republican papers published in Baltimore, Md., in a long interview with Mr. Bonaparte has him say that:

The issues of the campaign, the political situation in Maryland and President Roosevelt's "trust-busting" crusade were among the topics discussed yesterday by Attorney-General Charles J. Bonaparte, who spent the first day at his city office since his return from Lenox, Mass., where he spent the summer.

"Do you expect to put any trust magnates in jail before President Roosevelt's term expires?" Mr. Bonaparte was asked.

"Well, I hardly think so," he replied, in his characteristic tone and manner. "Trust magnates are very shrewd and they always squirm out of trouble. We will, however, push all pending cases."

Mr. Bonaparte was asked. "Do you think that Judge Taft will be elected president?"

"I think it is probable that he will be elected. He has a fighting chance."

"A probable election," and a "fighting chance," for Taft. This was not all, for the Attorney General was asked.

"Will Taft carry Maryland?"

"Well, from what I hear I think that he has a fighting chance, If the republicans in the state will put aside personal grievances and loyally support the ticket I think that his chances are fairly good."

More fighting chances, and if all the republicans, and the sixty-thousand negroes, and the democratic deserters, and a recreant press, all stick to Taft, then Mr. Bonaparte thinks Mr. Roosevelt's understudy, probably, can carry Maryland. Randall in his historic verses, said "Virginia shall not call in vain" but she did! and

She breathes, she burns,
She'll come, she'll come,
Maryland, my Maryland.

But she did not come then and has acted strangely since, yet her southern sisters who also missed her in 1861-65, hope to find her in the ranks of democracy on Tuesday, November 3rd, there to ever remain in the sisterhood of southern states.

THE membership of the democratic national press advisory committee, of which Henry Watterson, of Kentucky, is chairman, has been announced at democratic headquarters in Chicago. The Virginia members are: Messrs. Joseph Bryan, Charles B. Cooke, Carter Glass, S. S. Nottingham, William E. Cameron and R. A. James. Well, some of these men may be democrats this week, but—. The democratic is a forgiving party and it is probably well to let by gones be by gones. Still there are some democrats who have memories and others who believe that politicians are like horses—if they run away once they are apt to run away again.

WORKMEN on Tuesday began excavating for foundations to set the mortars presented to the local Grand Army Post, No. 176, by the United States government, at Lewistown, Pa. Scores of curious persons gathered about the little park asking questions. It was soon found that something would have to be done to get relief from the flood of interrogations if the contractor was to get any work out of his men, Early yesterday the following sign appeared: "Making foundations for placing mortars. Ask no questions." It seems that building operations attract the curious in other places save Alexandria.

Orville Wright expects to make a speed flight with his aeroplane this evening, if the wind subsides. It was blowing about ten miles an hour this morning and from a direction unfavorable for launching the air craft.

The Catholic Review, of New York, which for years has been the official organ of St. Joseph's Seminary, at Dunwoodie, and was edited by Rev. Fathers James F. Driscoll, John F. Brady, and Francis Duffy, has suspended publication, and it is said will not resume. It has fallen under the ban of the pope, it is stated, because of several articles written by the Rev. Edward A. Hanna, on "The human side of Christ." All copies of the Review containing the objectionable articles must be immediately cast out of Catholic libraries the world over. The congregation of the index which passes upon all church publications, has also condemned several articles in the Catholic encyclopedia by the same author as "The Human Side of Christ." The action of the pontiff in condemning the publications mentioned is in line with the general crusade The Popes is making against "Modernism" which he believes has been growing at an alarming rate, especially in America.

An army of workmen is putting the finishing touches on the new national mesum building for the reception of the International Congress on Tuberculosis, which is to begin its exhibition next Monday and its deliberative sessions seven days later. The government is spending $25,000 on its own exhibits, and on temporary work and upholstery to put the incomplete structure in shape for the world congress of scientists. The most distinguished physicians, surgeons, and architects in the world will attend, and every civilized country on the earth will be represented. Among the famous men to come will be Dr. Robert Koch, the discoverer of the tuberculosis bacilli; Arthur Newsholme, the English expert on tuberculosis; and Augustin Rey, of Paris. About $15,000 in prizes will be distributed.

In making the appointment today of six pattern makers at the Washington navy yard, Secretary of the Navy Metcalf has run afoul of an ancient law. According to an act passed June 30, 1876, any increase in the force employed at navy yards sixty days prior to a national election must be certified by an advertisement, stating that the men are necessary. The law was intended to prevent filling the yards with probable voters in political campaigns. Under civil service the law, of course, now stands superfluous, but since it has never been repealed, the secretary went through the process of inserting advertisements today.

Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, was on the stand most of the day in the taking of testimony in the Bucks Stove and Range contempt case. Daniel Davenport, of Bridgeport, counsel for the stove company, put Gompers through a gruelling cross examination while trying to prove that the labor leader had issued the January number of the American Federationist, after the injunction against himself and his co-defendants had become effective. At one time Gompers protested against the language and insinuations of Davenport, insisting that he was pursuing an unfair line of questions but the latter disclaimed any such intention, and the proceedings went on more amicably.

The customs receipts for the present month amount today to $14,724,265 as compared with $13,723,051 for the same number of days last year. "This is the first encouraging sign we have seen for many months" said Assistant and acting Secretary of the Treasury Reynolds, "and it looks as though business was improving."

The tropical storm that has been moving northeastwardly is now central some distance off southeastern New England. It is attended by high winds off the New England coast. Another disturbance is central off the east Texas coast, whence it will move eastwardly, causing showers in the east Gulf States and Florida during the next 36 hours. In the Carolinas, middle Atlantic States, lower lake region, and the upper Ohio valley the weather will continue fair with slowly rising temperature tonight and Friday.

It was said his secretary found a revolver on his way to the house and was handing the weapon to Mr. Leonard. The chief of police was summoned after the accident. Mr. Leonard died soon after being shot.

Extraordinary measures were taken to prevent their escape, including the wiring of all the outside doors of the home.

Grieving over a divorce suit that had been filed against her by her husband, from whom she had been separated but a week, Mrs. Gertrude Naumann, took a dose of strychnine while riding in a street car in Baltimore, Maryland, yesterday afternoon. She had carefully covered her face with her handkerchief while taking the poison, and nothing out of the ordinary was noticed about her movements until she fell back unconscious.

The government lost its largest postmaster and Adams county its biggest citizen in the death on Tuesday of Samuel L. Devine, thirty-one years old, a well known merchant of Edge Grove, near Hanover, Pa. Mr. Devine was six feet four inches tall and weighed nearly 350 poundo. Although a democrat, President Roosevelt appointed him postmaster two years ago. Mr. Devine also held the position of assessor of Conewago township.

The old Seventeen-mile House, on the east side of the York pike, about a mile west of Sparks Station, on the Northern Central Railway, and about three miles north of Cockeysville, Md., occupied as a dwelling by Mr. George R. Ensor and which had an interesting history during the civil war, was completely destroyed by fire Tuesday night, together with all the contents. Mr. Ensor and his family had a narrow escape.

It is understood in Paris that Prince Robert de Broglie, while admitting that he has left his wife, denies the intention attributed to him of suing for divorce. He said yesterday that he would not oppose a divorce suit brought by the princess. The Princess de Broglie is an American woman. Her maiden name was Estelle Alexander and she lived in San Francisco Later she married Sydney B. Walt, in Chicago, from whom she was divorced.

William Joline, aged 25, of Philadelphia, stabbed and seriously wounded James Walker, steward of Mercersburg Academy at Hagerstown, Md., Tuesday evening. Joline had just obtained the position of baker at the school, and became involved in a quarrel with the steward, who assigned him to quarters not satisfactory to him. While Joline was packing his trunk preparatory to leaving, Walker attempted to take a knife from him. Joline, who alleges self-defense, was held for court in ball. Walker's condit on last night was serious.

In response to tremendous sales to millers and exporters, the speculative wheat market in New York, yesterday made a new high level for the crop, touching $1 09½ for December at the close.

Rev. J. W. Hawkins, pastor of the Colored First Baptist Church and retiring moderator of the Colored Baptist General Association of Kentucky, one of the most noted negroes in the state, died suddenly yesterday of heart disease as a result of excitement growing out of a riot created at his home last night by a member of the Lexington, Ky., State Guard Company. The guardsman accused Hawkins' son of selling liquor, and tried to arrest him, and later attacked the Hawkins residence. Hawking was highly regarded.

John Burgess and Thomas Young, negroes, are held in Washington on charges of assault. According to the police, Policeman J. C. Much, of the Third precinct, while arresting Young, was attacked by Burgess. Policeman Much was off duty, but when he saw Young enter Navy place, between G, I, Sixth and Seventh streets southeast, he placed him under arrest. He was leading the man to the patrol box, it is alleged, when he was attacked in the rear by Burgess. Much was knocked to the ground, but he sprang to his feet and caught Burgess. Policeman Moran, of the Fifth precinct, appeared, and the two negroes were taken to the station-house. The officer was not seriously injured.

Major Cuignet, of the French army, has written another letter in connection with the Dreyfus case, in which he brings new accusations, this time against M. Beaupre, president of the Court of Cassation. This latest communication from the major is an outcome of the acquittal of Louis A. Gregoria on the charge of attempting to murder Major Dreyfus, and appears in L'Action Francaise. After recalling M. Beaupre's part in the decision of 1906, Major Cuignet charges that Dreyfus was guilty, and that the court falsified the records. The writer concludes with the words, addressed to M. Beaupre: "I am your accuser before the country, which is your judge, and I defy you to investigate my charges."

At the golden wedding supper of himself and wife, W. H. Singer, a rich iron king, of Pittsburg, distributed $16,000,000 among his four children, each getting $4,000,000. Through the filing of certain papers in the Allegheny county courthouse yesterday this came out and was later admitted by the Singer family, which is among the best and oldest in Pittsburg. The iron king simply invited his children to the family home in Allegheny to assist in celebrating the golden wedding date on May 22. None but the children was invited, and each of them found by his or her plate a small dinner "favor"—checks, bonds and deeds amounting to $4,000,000 each. Every effort has been made to keep the matter quiet and they succeeded until yesterday, when the filing of papers made it public.

TYPHOID FEVER.

Within the next few months several Virginia towns will in all probability suffer from epidemics, more or less severe, of typhoid. The question as to what is the proper procedure in order to control the situation and cut short the epidemic will be put to those in authority. The usual assumption is that the water is to blame, and the usual procedure is to send a sample for analysis, requesting that it be examined for the germ of typhoid fever.

It can not be too strongly stated that while water is an important factor, and probably the most important, in the spread of typhoid, it is not the only one, and particularly in this climate it does not do simply to analyze the water, if the real cause of the trouble is to be found. There must be in addition a careful study of the conditions, by one who is familiar with just that kind of investigation, and a painstaking analysis of a good proportion of the individual cases in each epidemic, before any opinion of value can be given.

This department will be glad to make sanitary analysis of specimens of water, sent by the proper authorities, and give opinion as to the quality of the water, as far as possible, but it can not undertake to draw deductions or to give advice as to the proper procedure from the results of laboratory examination alone.

The department will, however, make investigations of epidemics in as many cases as possible, bringing to bear not only the results of laboratory examinations of water, but all facts that can be obtained by a careful inspection of the circumstances surrounding the epidemic, and a study of the individual cases of the disease.

Requests for such investigations may be made by local boards of health, or local governing bodies, and such help as can be given will be furnished free of cost to the community as soon as practicable after the request is received.—[Virginia Health Bulletin.

THE POWER OF STEAM.

Many May See But It Takes Genius To Realize.

When James Watt saw the steam causing the kettle lid to jump up and down he said "There must be power in that steam that it can lift such a weight."

There was.

Millions prior to him had seen the same phenomenon and regarded it as an unexplained mystery.

Recent scientific research has put its finger on the "cause" of Dandruff, Falling Hair, and consequent Baldness, and has unearthed a tiny germ which eats the life from the roots of human hair.

Newbro's Herpicide destroys this germ and consequently restores the hair to its natural state.

Sold by Ernest L. Allen & Co., agents. Two sizes 50c and $1.00. Send 10c in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich. 94

New York Stock Market.

New York, Sept. 17.—Although a number of stocks showed a fair amount of strength during the first hour prices were irregular and buying was confined chiefly to Reading, Baltimore and Ohio and Erie. The buying of these stocks was through houses often used by interests closely affiliated with E. H. Harriman and this movement caused traders to follow the buying in selling pressure. Railroads made important gains.

In governments the registered fours advanced 1-4 and registered twos declined 1-8. Other bonds steady.

Dynamite Plot.

St. Petersburg, Sept. 17.—Two hundred and fifty members of the social revolutionary committee and the revolutionary railroad union have already been arrested and scores of others are being searched for today as the result of the discovery of hundreds of pounds of dynamite and many completed bombs in their headquarters. The discovery came about through the arrest of a suspicious looking traveler from southern Russia. The police found on him documents implicating a high police official named Cholodnikoff in a revolutionary plot. Cholodnikoff was arrested at his house and the premises searched, the authorities finding evidence that led to the secret headquarters of the social revolutionary committee and revolutionary railroad union.

The house was found to be filled with dynamite, bombs and other revolutionary instruments and documents. It is believed that the revolutionists planned to take advantage of the cholera situation which had been demanding the entire time of the police, to commit the most daring outrages in the city. When the extent of the plot became known the police were ordered to let the cholera situation take care of itself and give themselves over to the arrest of the plotters.

International Arbitration.

Berlin, Sept. 17.—The fifteenth conference of the Inter Parliamentary Union for promotion of international arbitration was opened in the Chamber of the Reichstag today, with more than 600 delegates in attendance. The German Imperial chancellor, Prince Bulow, made the address of welcome in which he declared that the outlook for universal peace was never brighter.

Thirty members for the Russian Douma are among the most interesting delegations attending the conference. The American delegation is made up of eight, headed by Representative Bartholdt, of Missouri.

The conference will sit for three days. Herr Bajer will present a report on proposals to be submitted to the third Hague conference, in 1915 and Delegates Beernaert, Holland and Gobat, Switzerland, will make a report on the second Hague conference, held last year, and will also submit proposals for the foundation of a permanent international tribunal and other new propositions concerning compulsory arbitration. The institution of an international court of naval prizes will be discussed.

Mrs. Nation After Taft.

Cincinnati, O., Sept. 17.—Mrs. Carrie Nation arrived in Cincinnati at 8 a. m. and by 9 o'clock she had cut a wide swath extending from Fountain Square to the Taft mansion and back again. Mrs. Nation was eager to see the republican presidential candidate for whom the famous Kansas women cherishes animosity which she did not seek to conceal. "He's just made out of putty by Roosevelt," declared Carrie. She was accompanied to the Taft residence by Rev. George Hamell, a prominent Cincinnati prohibitionist. When Mrs. Nation emerged from the Taft mansion she ejaculated, "Coward, he refused to discuss the questions I put to him. Then he excused himself just to get rid of me."

"Do you believe that the canteen should be restored to the army" was the first question Carrie fired at the candidate.

"Madam, I must refuse to discuss the matter," said Taft with his usual smile. "I am handling national issues."

"Well, so am I," snapped Carrie, "and I have come here to tell you that, I am strongly and distinctly anti-Taft. I believe that you represent the liquor interests and I'm going to do all I can against you".

At this point a caller arrived and the interview was terminated abruptly.

Mr. Bryan.

New York, Sept. 17.—Hoarse from constant speaking, and looking tired and fagged, William Jennings Bryan came here today.

His physician has advised him to take a rest but his compaign managers say that it is necessary for him to remain on the stump. Instead of shortening his speech-making tour they are planning to extend it and he may be sent as far as the Pacific coast.

Mr. Bryan left at once for Harrington and Wilmington, Del., at both of which places he is booked to make speeches today.

Tomorrow, at noon, he will speak at a Broadway meeting here and at night will speak at Carnegie Hall.

New Haven, Providence and Boston are next on the list. Sunday morning he will lunch at Esopus with Judge Parker and Sunday night will be spent at Wofert's Roost, with former Senator David B. Hill. Monday he will go to Albany and that same night he is due at Buffalo.

On his way down from Rochester this morning Mr. Bryan had a conference with Chairman Mack with regard to his future speaking dates. Announcement of these will be made in a few days. The last ten days of the campaign will be kept open, so that he may be rushed to important points. One day at least during the last week will be spent in New York. Mr. Bryan thinks he has won the country beyond the Mississippi.

Harrington, Del., Sept. 18.—William Jennings Bryan entered Delaware today and before he leaves the State tomorrow morning he will have wiped out the last existing "sore spot" in the democratic party here and will have brought about harmony that has been absent from the party councils in the state since the early '90's. Bryan's speech here was devoted almost entirely to the discussion of the labor. He had an enthusiatic audience and dwelt at great length on the labor planks of the Denver platform. He reiterated his charge that President Roosevelt has failed to break up a single trust and insisted that there are many more trusts now that there were when the president was inaugurated. Immediately after he concluded his speech Bryan and his party returned to Wilmington, where he will spend the night, going on to New York in the morning. The published endorsement of his candidacy from the pen of Richard Olney, formerly of President Cleveland's cabinet, pleased Bryan very much and he commented in growing terms on the unsolicited tribute.

NEW POSTOFFICES.

The postoffice department announces that two Virginia postoffices—those at Purcellville and The Plains—will be raised from fourth-class to presidential class offices October 1 next. The salary of the officials at these offices will hereafter be $1,100 per year each.

Mysterious Death.

New York, Sept. 17.—Officially declared a suicide but with his death surrounded by mystery which points to assassination, the body of Arturo Asenicio, a priest, lies here today in the morgue awaiting shipment to his home in Santo Domingo. Father Asenicio's end came in a fashion which has puzzled the police. He arrived here early in July with three nephews whom he subsequently entered in a seminary in Montreal. Returning here Aug. 20 the priest made arrangements to return to Santo Domingo. On Monday night he was found shot to death at an entrance to Central Park and it is now believed as a large amount of money he is known to have had was gone, that he had been followed and done to death by foes from his island home.

Fabico Fiallo, the Dominican consul, is making arrangements for the return of the priest's body.

The Bankers.

Baltimore, Sept. 17.—Bankers from all over Maryland and many financiers from other states gathered today the Belvidere Hotel to attend the first business session of the thirteenth annual convention of the Maryland bankers' association. The convention was called to order by President H. B. Wilcox, in his address, treated with subjects in which the association is vitally concerned, and made recommendations for the advancement of the banking interest, both locally and nationally. Mayor Mahool welcomed the delegates on behalf of the city. Response was made by Jos. D. Baker as president of the Citizens National Bank, of Frederick, Md., Following the appointment of the various committees, addresses were delivered by Hon. Clark Williams, superintendent of the Banking Department of the State of New York, and William F. King, cashier of the Pocomoke City National bank, Pocomoke City, Md.,

Attempted to Exterminate Family.

St. Louis, Sept. 17.—Unable to find employment and confronting starvation A. W. Reamer, of East St. Louis early today attempted to burn the house in which his wife, three small children and Mrs. Reamer's father and mother were asleep and later made two attempts at suicide. Reamer returned home to find that, without consulting him wife had brought her parents to live with her. He saturated the furniture with gasolene and set fire to it, then went outside to watch the result. Mrs. Reamer awoke and by heroic efforts rescued the other occupants. The fire was extinguished and Reamer arrested. On the way to the station he tried to kill himself by chewing a railroad torpedo. Later in his cell he hanged himself with his suspenders but was cut down in time to save his life.

LETTER TO JAS PATTERSON

Alexandria, Va.

Dear Sir: You buy horses. What'll you give for five that'll travel 6 7 8 9 10 miles an hour—one looks as good as another, one eats as much as another, alike except go?

You've got "no use for a horse that can't go more than 8 miles an hour?" We thought so.

Well; Devoe is a paint, 10 gallons of which is enough for your house—if it isn't too big. If you use the next-best paint, it'll take 11 gallons; another 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20; you can find a paint that'll take over 20 gallons.

What'll you give for that row of paints, begin at the end of the row?

Same as you'll give for the six-mile horse, eh? We thought so.

Say—when we've got a bum horse to sell, we shan't call on you

Yours truly,

The body of the young woman drowned at North Beach, N. Y., was identified today as Sophia Korn, a maid employed at the summer home of Thomas Young, a broker at Oyster Bay. Mr. and Mrs. Young visited the morgue at Astoria, L. I., and identified the body. The young woman had been in America about five years and expected to return soon to her home in Gerry. Mr. and Mrs. Young think the drowning was accidental. The lack of wounds seem to point to suicide but tracks of a man and a woman on the nearby shore and the statement of a conductor on the Queens county railroad incits thoughts of murder. The police theory is that she went to the lonely spot to meet a man and that he drowned her there in the dark.

Don't be afraid to give Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to your children. It contains no opium or other harmful drug. It always cures. For sale by W. F. Creighton and Richard Gibson.

MALCOLM HUFTY ARRESTED.

Charged with failing to pay his back hire of $3, Malcolm Hufty was arrested by the police of the First precinct, Washington, last night, on the complaint of George Patterson, a driver. Hufty deposited $5 collateral with the desk sergeant for his appearance in the Police Court today. Patterson declared that Hufty, after riding about for nearly three hours in his vehicle, refused to pay him, without offering an explanation. Hufty refused to discuss the matter. According to the statement of Capt. Williams the driver sought in every way to persuade Hufty to pay his fare before having him arrested. While it is possible that Hufty may forfeit his collateral, the driver declares he intends to obtain his fare if possible. Hufty's wife brought suit against him for a legal separation last spring on the charge of drunkenness. After a week of sensational reports and denials, the matter was dropped, the wife withdrawing the suit.

Hufty is known among the lawyers of Washington as a man of exceptional ability, and is well-known in this city.

A WARNING.

The proprietor of a north Fairfax street pool room was cited to appear in the Police Court this morning to show cause why he should not be fined for keeping his house open after twelve o'clock at night. Officers Bell and Henderson furnished the information upon which the warrant was based. Six negroes, some apparently under age, had been summoned as witnesses. While the evidence was being given a colored woman approached and informed the court that her boys were regular visitors to the place where they lost all the money they earned. Justice Caton in summing up the case said that while there was no law forbidding the keeping open of pool rooms after 12 o'clock except on Saturday nights, if such procedures became an annoyance to people in the vicinity, the proprietors of such resort as well as the inmates could be arrested and fined for disorderly conduct. The accused was dismissed.

May; committee on supplies, L. P. Woodward, O. H. Kirk, A. D. Grimes, W. S. Nicklin, J. Wm. May. The officers are subject to confirmation on the night of organization, which has not been fixed. Regular meetings of the new tribe will be held on the second and fourth Fridays of each month in the hall in the Alexandria National Bank building.

An invitation was received from Osceola Tribe No. 1 to the new tribe to organize in its Wigwam, on October 8, and receive degrees, which invitation was accepted.

THE AIR SHIP.

Many Alexandrians daily visit Fort Myer to get a glimpse of the Wright aeroplane, only to return disappointed. The high wind from the north which prevailed yesterday did not subside in time to permit of a flight by Orville Wright in his aeroplane. Mr. Wright was at the testing grounds at 4 o'clock in the afternoon, intending to make a flight should the wind die down or shift to a southerly direction. The wind was blowing from the back of the starting track. "We could start if the wind was facing us ," he said "but with the wind blowing from the rear, it would be impossible to lift the machine from the ground with two men in it. I could make a flight alone if the wind was blowing at the rate of three miles an hour from the north, but it is at least eight miles." Mr. Wright expects to make his official speed trial this week. He changed his propellers yesterday, replacing those he has been using with another pair of greater diameter. He was not satisfied with the speed obtained from the discarded propellers.

POLICE COURT.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.]

The following cases were disposed of this morning:

Lottie Wilson, Ethel Bryant and Ella Johnson, colored, charged with improper conduct near the electric railway bridge over Hunting creek, were fined $5 each.

Edward Travers, charged with being drunk and disorderly, was dismissed upon promising to abstain from the use of liquor for a period of six months.

Richard Vance, colored, charged with stealing goods from a railway car, was turned over to the authorities of Fairfax county.

The proprietor of a north Fairfax street pool room, charged with keeping his place of business open after 12 o'clock at night, was dimissed with an admonition.

ALEXANDRIA TEACHERS' ASSOCIATION.

At a recent meeting of the teachers of the Alexandria public schools, a local Teachers' Association was formed. The meeting was presided over by Superintendent Kemper, and the following officers were elected: T. H. Ficklin, A. M., president; W. H. Sweeney, vice-president; Miss Anna N. Summers, secretary and treasurer. The superintendent also appointed a committee to arrange for an institute to be held Friday, October 17, when Chas G. Maphis, examiner of the Fifth district, and other prominent educators are expected to be present.

NARROW ESCAPE.

Four children of Peter Campbell, manager of the Columbia Oil Company, at Rosslyn, Va., and Miss McSorley, of Philadelphia, narrowly escaped injury yesterday morning when a horse attached to a buggy in which they were riding ran away. The vehicle was smashed and the horse injured, but the occupants escaped with a few scratches. The children were on their way to school when the horse took fright as a cavalry horse in charge of Sergt. Young, of Fort Myer, began to plunge. Sergt. Young took the children to their home. The accident occurred on the Ballston road, not far from this city.

FINED FIVE DOLLARS EACH.

Lottie Wilson, Ethel Bryant and Ella Johnson, the three young colored women who were arrested yesterday by Officers Knight and Rawlett for improper conduct near the northern approach to the electric railway bridge over Hunting creek, were brought before the Police Court this morning and fined $5 each. The evidence of Mr. W. Crockett, who is acting as inspector of the road, was to the effect that the women were lying on some bridge timber and when trains passed their conduct was disgusting.

CONTRACT FOR FIXTURES.

The contract for the interior fixtures for the First National Bank was yesterday awarded to the Goraline Architectural Bronze Co., of New York, and the Viet Manufacturing Co., of Grand Rapids, Mich. The banking screen will be of marble and bronze, throughout, and is designed to harmonize with the rest of the building. The interior work including the fixtures and furniture, is to be executed under the direction of architects for the building, Messrs. Vogt & Morrill. Owing to the delay in receiving marble for the front it is not expected that the building will be ready for occupancy before March 1st.

SOLDIER ESCAPES.

Electing to take desperate chances on being shot by an armed sentry rather than serve eighteen months in a military prison to which institution he was to be taken today, William Fick, a member of Battery E, Third Battalion, of the artillery, convicted of theft, made a bold and successful dash for liberty at Fort Myer, Va., yesterday afternoon. Although a detachment of armed cavalry, commanded by Lieut. Shepherd, scoured the woods contiguous to the military post all night, the fugitive was still at large early this morning, and prospects of his being taken by the would-be captors are slim.

DATE FIXED.

The hearing of the suit of the Washington-Southern Railway Company vs. City Council of Alexandria, an injunction proceeding as to the use of Henry street for railroad tracks, has been fixed for September 29, in the Circuit Court for this city. Governor Swanson has been requested to designate a judge to sit in the case, as Judge Thornton, at the time of the bringing of the suit, was an attorney for the railroad company and declines to preside at the trial.

MASONIC.

Eminent Sir W. B. McChesney, grand captain general of the Grand Commandery K. T., of Virginia, will visit Old Dominion Commandery No. 11, of this city, tomorrow night for the purpose of making the annual inspection of the commandery. At this meeting the officers will be elected for the ensuing year.

POLICE COMMISSIONERS.

The regular meeting of the Board of Police Commissioners was held last night, when Chief Goods submitted a favorable report on the workings of the police force. The business was of a routine nature and nothing of interest took place.

TRIP TO ATLANTIC CITY.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Gwinn and Mr. Wm. C. H. Wildt have gone to Baltimore on the Weems line steamer and from there will go by the way of canal to Philadelphia and thence to Atlantic City. The weather is reported as very cold and overcoats are in demand at that famous resort.

EAGLES' MEETING.

Alva Aerie, No 871, held an interesting meeting last night at which the fall and winter programme was decided on. It was decided to hold two important meetings on the 1st and 3d Wednesdays in October.

WIDE AWAKE BUTCHER.

The Gazette welcomes to its columns today the advertisement of Aaron Odell, the well-known butcher. A glance at his stall in the market is proof conclusive that he is abreast of the times and ready to furnish on short notice the choicest meats obtainable. He has established adjoining his handsome home on north Washington street a sausage factory and caters for the trade of this city in this line of meats. All his meats are home killed, the greatest care being exercised in the killing. Courteous treatment has characterized his dealings with the people of Alexandria—hence his success. He ranks among the best butchers not only of Alexandria but of this section. Look for Odell's sausage and you will not be disappointed.

ANOTHER ARREST.

As was stated in the Gazette, Detective O'Brien arrested Ed. Robinson, colored, in Washington, yesterday, on a charge of robbing a car of the Washington-Southern Railway at Woodbridge, Monday night. Later Officer Young went to the house of Emma Green, colored, 220 north Henry street, where Robinson spent Tuesday night, and recovered 15 suits of clothes and other articles. Last night officers Sampson and Ferguson went to the Green woman's house, where they found Richard Vance, colored, who is said to have been engaged in the robbery. He was turned over to the Fairfax authorities this morning.

CLOSING IN ON THIEVES.

The police are winding a net of evidence around the thieves who have been operating in this section for some time and they deserve great credit. The culprits who stole the whisky from the Potomac yards are in custody and the officers are in possession of the knowledge of the vehicles which hauled the goods. This has been a busy summer for the police and they should be commended for the work they have done.

WANTED AT FORT HUNT.

Chas. A. Robinson, a soldier belonging to 47th Company, Coast Artillery Corps, who is serving a 30 day term in jail for begging on the street and disorderly conduct, is wanted at Fort Hunt on the expiration of his sentence here, as seen by a letter to Chief Goods this morning from Lieut. Stephen Abbott, Coast Artillery Corps, Fort Hunt. Robinson's term expires on the 29th.

THURSDAY EVENING, SEPT. 17, 1908

By the Name of "X."

In France, where great care is taken that men shall have no other name than that to which they are lawfully entitled and where every citizen's name, profession, social condition and history are carefully recorded and his goings and comings are officially kept track of, some very curious incidents take place.

On one occasion a young man was arrested in Constantine, Algeria, on a charge of stealing money belonging to his employer. When it was sought to make a record of his name, it was found that he had no lawful name at all.

He had been "inscribed" at Bordeaux at the date of his birth, but his father and mother were not known, and the name of Lafonde, under which he had been inscribed without authority, he had since been forbidden by a court of justice to bear because it was not rightfully his. After having been forbidden the name of Lafonde he took that of Bruyton and was refused permission to bear that.

Nevertheless he managed to exist in some way without any name at all, but when, having been accused of taking some money that had disappeared, the law was obliged to take cognizance of him in some way he was entered on the lists of the court as one "X." And it was as "X" that he was sent to prison.—New York Tribune.

An Inspired Sculptress.

As a mere girl Miss Vinnie Ream, the sculptress, visited Rome, her soul filled with enthusiasm for music and art. On one occasion she was taken to one of Liszt's concerts and was fortunate enough to obtain a seat near enough to have touched him with her hand. As the great master played she listened rapturously to the wonderful music, entranced and forgetful of everything save the glorious sounds produced by his inspired touch.

At a pause Liszt turned and looked at her, and quietly, without a word, he leaned and overhid one hand over hers and gently pressed it in silent recognition of the appreciation which glowed in her large black eyes and filled her whole being. At the close of the concert he turned to her and said, "My child, we need no introduction."

At her earnest request that he would sit for her he readily consented, and she modeled the bust from life, putting in the work the true artist's inspiration and power, which alone can give to it the touch of strength and life.—Baltimore Sun.

Not on the Programme.

Two stout old Germans were enjoying their pipes and placidly listening to the strains of the summer garden orchestra. One of them in tipping his chair back stepped on a parlor match, which exploded with a bang.

"Dot vas not on the programme," he said, turning to his companion.

"Vat vas not?"

"Vy, dot match."

"Vat match?"

"De match I valked on."

"Vell, I didn't see no match. Vat aboud it?"

"Vy, I walked on a match, and it went bang, and I said it vas not on the programme."

The other picked up his programme and read it through very carefully. "I don't see it on the programme," he said.

"Vell, I said it vas not on the programme, didn't I?"

"Vell, vat has it got to do mit the programme anyway? Egsplain yourself."—Ladies' Home Journal.

After a South African Storm.

With the breaking of the day I went outside. The country was unrecognizable. The land and the scenery which I had known for years were entirely altered. The very hills, piled high with white hailstones, were a different shape, and torrents of muddy water poured down from all sides. And when the red sun rose into a clear bright sky the scene of ruin and desolation was awful to look at. Buildings had been hurled to the ground and were nothing more than hills of hailstones. A large dam I had spent two years in making had been completely swept away. In another dam which had remained unbroken the hailstones had accumulated and piled themselves up over twenty feet in height. There was not a sign of water in this huge dam, just a huge pile of frozen hailstones.—Wide World Magazine.

Married by Blood.

In the island of Banquey there is a tribe of Dusuns differing widely in language, religion and customs from other tribes bearing that name. Marriages are performed in the forest in the presence of two families. There is no public gathering or feast. The rite consists in transferring a drop of blood from a wooden knife in the calf of the man's leg to a similar cut in the woman's leg. After marriage the man takes the bride to her home, where he resides in future as a member of the family.

Legal Repartee.

"Gentlemen of the jury," said the pompous lawyer, assuming his most imposing mien, "I once sat upon the Judge's bench in Iowa."

"Where was the judge?" quickly inquired the opposing attorney, and the pompous gentleman found the thread of his argument hopelessly entangled.—Detroit Free Press.

Offensive.

"No, I don't like that woman," declared Nuwed.

"And why not?"

A Traveling Man's Experience.

"I must tell you my experience on an east bound O. R. & N. R. R. train from Pendleton to La Grande, Ore., writes Sam A. Garber, a well known traveling man. 'I was in the smoking department with some other traveling men when one of them went out into the coach and came back and said, 'There is a woman sick unto death in the car.' I at once got up and went out, found her very ill with cramp colic; her hands and arms were drawn up so you could not straighten them, and with a death-like look on her face. Two or three ladies were working with her and giving her whisky. I went to my suit case and got my bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrœa Remedy (I never travel without it), ran to the water tank, put a double dose of the medicine in the glass, poured some water in to it and stirred it with a pencil; then I had quite a time to get the ladies to let me give it to her, but I succeeded. I could at once see the effect and I worked with her, rubbing her hands, and in twenty minutes I gave her another dose. By this time we were almost into La Grande, where I was to leave the train. I gave the bottle to the husband to be used in case another dose should be needed, but by the time the train ran into La Grande she was all right, and I received the thanks of every passenger in the car.'" For sale by W. F. Creighton & Co., and Richard Gibson.
